Dear Mr Giles,

Re: Suspension of Concentrated Capital Limited

Concentrated Capital Limited have formally applied to the NSX to delist. The reason is that they have successfully applied to the ASX to list and the ASX have approved quotation pending finalization of documentation from the Company.

The NSX has been advised by the Company that the expected date of listing on the ASX will be 14th of December 2007. Consequently, the company will remain suspended on the NSX until close of business 13th of December 2007. The ASX have advised that the CHESSE sub-register has also been suspended.

The NSX following Listing and Business rules apply:

Listing Rule	Section 1 Rule 2.25
Business Rule	Part C Rule 86
Pre-Open	As the company is delisting there will be no pre-open
End of Suspension	As the company is delisting there will be no ending of the suspension.

The suspension is enforced to maintain an orderly transition of CCT to ASX and to prevent a possibility of a false market arising while the company completes ASX procedures.

Yours Sincerely

Scott Evans
General Manager
