

Report on Call of 37 cents made on partly paid C Class Redeemable Preference Shares on 2 April 2008

Pursuant to the terms of the prospectus dated 2 April 2007, a call of 37 cents per share was made on 2 April 2008 on each of the 5,400,000 C Class redeemable preference shares which had been partly paid to 37 cents on application.

As at 28 May 2008 that call has been paid in respect of 3,640,000 shares, amounting to $2,693,600. The call remains unpaid in respect of the remaining 1,760,000 shares on which interest is accruing at the rate of 12% per annum.