Dear Sir / Madam,

AgriNurture, Inc. (ANI) entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Far East Agricultural Holding Corp. (FEAHC) and the Philippine Agricultural Development and Commercial Corporation, the entity designated by the Philippine Department of Agriculture to lead the facilitation of investments in farmlands and idle lands in the Philippines for agribusiness ventures.

Under the MOU, ANI and FEAHC intend to jointly develop approximately 20,000 hectares of land (with focus on farmlands and idle lands in Mindanao) for long-term use as banana, pineapple, rice and/or corn plantations as well as the construction of processing facilities therein. The harvests from the contemplated project shall be principally for export, with priority given to countries in the Middle East region.

Sincerely,
