NOTES

Voting by proxy

A shareholder of the Company entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint not more than two proxies. Where more than one proxy is appointed, each proxy must be appointed to represent a specified proportion of the shareholder's voting rights. If the shareholder appoints two proxies and the appointment does not specify this proportion, each proxy may exercise half of the votes. A proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company and may be a person or a body corporate.

Note that pursuant to clause 18.2 of the Company's Constitution the instrument appointing a proxy and the original power of attorney must be received by the Company at least 48 hours before the meeting ie. 2.00 pm Monday 21st June 2010, by delivery to the Company's Registry either: by mail to Share Registry-Registries Limited, GPO Box 3993, Sydney NSW 2001 Australia, or by fax to +61 2 9290 9655 or in person to Share Registry-Registries Limited, Level 7, 207 Kent Street, Sydney NSW 2000 Australia.

Voting entitlement

In accordance with Regulation 7.11.37 of the Corporations Regulations 2001 the Company has determined that the shareholding of each shareholder for the purpose of voting entitlements for the Extraordinary General Meeting or adjourned meeting will be as it appears in the Share Register at 2.00 pm on Monday 24 May 2010.

Voting by attorney

A member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting may appoint an attorney to vote at the meeting. Attorneys should bring to the meeting an original or certified copy of the power of attorney.

Corporate representatives

A corporation who is a member, or who has been appointed as a proxy by a member, may appoint a person to act as its representative in accordance with s 250D of the Corporations Act 2001 to vote at the meeting. Evidence of the appointment must be brought to the meeting together with any authority under which it is signed. A pro forma Certificate of Appointment of Corporate Representative may be obtained from the Company's Share Registry.

Voting procedure

The vote on each resolution will be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is validly demanded. Each member present in person, by proxy, attorney or representative, has one vote on a show of hands and one vote for each fully paid share held on a poll.

For a person who has been appointed as a proxy under two or more instruments that specify different ways to vote on a resolution, the person may not vote as a proxy on a show of hands, however, if the person is a member, the person may vote on a show of hands without regard to the proxy the person holds.

Jointly held shares

If shares are jointly held, only one of the members can vote. If more than one joint member votes, only the vote of the member whose name appears first on the register of members will be counted.
