If a share certificate for Shares is worn out or lost it may be renewed on production of the worn out certificate or on satisfactory proof of its loss together with such indemnity as may be required by a Resolution of Directors.

19. A Share issued by the Company upon conversion of, or in exchange for, another Share or a debt obligation or other security in the Company, shall be treated for all purposes as having been issued for money equal to the consideration received or deemed to have been received by the Company in respect of the other Share, debt obligation or security.

20. Subject to any procedures imposed by the Act, the Company may reduce its capital by:
- (a) an ordinary resolution if all Shares are impacted equally;
 - (b) if not all Shares are impacted, by a resolution passed by at least 75% of shareholders where those shares impacted are not voted provided that if the impacted shares are to be cancelled, the holders of the impacted shares consent to the cancellation.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

21. Subject to any CHES requirements while ever the Company is on the official list of the Exchange, Shares may be transferred by a written instrument of transfer signed by the transferor and containing the name and address of the transferee and, in the case of the transfer of a Share that imposes a liability to the Company on the transferee, the instrument of transfer shall also be signed by the transferee.
22. The Company shall not be required to treat a transferee of a Share as a Shareholder until the transferee's name has been entered in the Register of Shareholders.
23. The registration of a transfer of Shares may be suspended and the Register of Shareholders closed at such times and for such periods as the Company may from time to time by Resolution of Directors determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended and the Register of Shareholders shall not be closed for more than 30 days in any period of 12 months.
24. Where the Directors are satisfied that an instrument of transfer has been signed but that the instrument has been lost or destroyed, they may resolve:

The executor or administrator of a deceased Shareholder, the guardian of an incompetent Shareholder, the trustee of a bankrupt Shareholder or liquidator or administrator or receiver of an insolvent Shareholder shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to the Shares of that Shareholder but none of them shall be entitled to exercise any rights as a Shareholder until they have complied with the procedures set out in the next following two Regulations.
26. Any person becoming entitled by operation of law or otherwise to a Share or Shares in consequence of the death, incompetence or bankruptcy of any Shareholder may be registered as a Shareholder upon such evidence being produced as may reasonably be required by the Directors. An application by any such person to be registered as a Shareholder shall be deemed to be a transfer of Shares of the deceased, incompetent or bankrupt Shareholder and the Directors shall treat it as such.
27. Any person who has become entitled to a Share or Shares in consequence of the death, incompetence or bankruptcy of any Shareholder may, instead of being registered himself, request in writing that some person to be named by him be registered as the transferee of such Share or Shares and such request shall likewise be treated as if it were a transfer.

28. What amounts to incompetence on the part of a person is a matter to be determined by the court having regard to all the relevant evidence and the circumstances of the case.

FORFEITURE

29. Where Shares are not fully paid on issue, or are issued for a promissory note or other written obligation for payment of a debt have been issued subject to forfeiture, the following provisions shall apply.

31. The written notice referred to in the immediately preceding Regulation shall:
- (a) name a further date not earlier than the expiration of 14 days from the date of service of the notice on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and
 - (b) contain a statement that in the event of non-payment at or before the time named in the notice the Shares, or any of them, in respect of which payment is not made will be liable to be forfeited.
32. Where a written notice has been issued under these Regulations and the requirements have not been complied with, the Directors may at any time before tender of payment forfeit and cancel the Shares to which the notice relates.
33. The Company is under no obligation to refund any moneys to the Shareholder whose Shares have been forfeited and cancelled pursuant to these Regulations. Upon forfeiture and cancellation of the Shares the Shareholder is discharged from any further obligation to the Company with respect to the Shares forfeited and cancelled.

MEETINGS AND CONSENTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

34. The Directors may convene meetings of the Shareholders at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the British Virgin Islands as the Directors consider necessary or desirable, however, the failure to satisfy this Regulation does not invalidate the meeting.
35. Upon the written request of Shareholders holding five (5) percent or more of the outstanding Shares entitled to vote in the Company on the matter for which the meeting is being requested the Directors shall convene a meeting of Shareholders.
36. The Directors shall give not less than twenty-eight (28) days notice of meetings of Shareholders to those persons whose names on the date the notice is given appear as Shareholders in the Register of Shareholders and are to vote at the meeting.
37. The Directors may fix the date notice is given of a meeting of Shareholders, or such other date as may be specified in the notice, as the record date for determining those Shareholders that are entitled to vote at a meeting.

38. A meeting of Shareholders held in contravention of the notice requirements set out above is valid if Shareholders holding not less than a ninety (90) percent majority of:

- (a) the total number of Shares entitled to vote on all matters to be considered at the meeting; or
- (b) a ninety (90) percent majority of the votes of each class of Shares where Shareholders are entitled to vote thereon as a class together with not less than an absolute majority of the remaining votes, have waived notice of the meeting and for this purpose presence at the meeting shall be deemed to constitute waiver.

39. The inadvertent failure of the Directors to give notice of a meeting to a Shareholder, or the fact that a Shareholder has not received notice, does not invalidate the meeting.
40. A Shareholder may be represented at a meeting of Shareholders by a proxy who may speak and vote on behalf of the Shareholder.
41. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be produced at the place appointed for the meeting before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote.
42. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in substantially the following form or such other form as the chairman of the meeting shall accept as properly evidencing the wishes of the Shareholder appointing the proxy.

Shareholder

43. The following shall apply in respect of joint ownership of Shares:
- (a) if two or more persons hold Shares jointly each of them may be present in person or by proxy at a meeting of Shareholders and may speak as a Shareholder;
 - (b) if only one of the joint owners is present in person or by proxy he may vote on behalf of all joint owners; and
 - (c) if two or more of the joint owners are present in person or by proxy they must vote as one.
44. A Shareholder shall be deemed to be present at a meeting of Shareholders if he participates by telephone or other electronic means and all Shareholders participating in the meeting are able to hear each other.
45. A meeting of Shareholders is properly constituted, for all purposes, if at the commencement of the meeting, there are present in person or by proxy two Shareholders entitled to vote on Resolutions of Shareholders to be considered at the meeting unless there is only one Shareholder, in which case a quorum will be that Shareholder present in person or by proxy.

46. If within two hours from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the next business day at the same time and place or to such other time and place as the Directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting there are present within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting in person or by proxy not less than one third of the votes of the Shares or each class or series of Shares entitled to vote on the resolution to be considered by the meeting, those present shall constitute a quorum but otherwise the meeting shall be dissolved.
47. At every meeting of Shareholders, the chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If there is no chairman of the Board of Directors or if the chairman of the Board of Directors is not present at the meeting, the Shareholders present shall choose someone of their number to be the chairman. If the Shareholders are unable to choose a chairman for any reason, then the person representing the greatest number of voting Shares present in person or by prescribed form of proxy at the meeting shall preside as chairman failing which the oldest individual Shareholder or representative of a Shareholder present shall take the chair.
48. The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
49. At any meeting of the Shareholders the chairman shall be responsible for deciding in such manner as he shall consider appropriate whether any resolution has been carried or not and the result of his decision shall be announced to the meeting and recorded in the minutes thereof. Every Shareholder present in person or represented by proxy shall on a show of hands have one vote. Where a person present represents as proxy more than one shareholder, on a show of hands that person is entitled to one vote only despite the number of Shareholders the person represents. If the chairman shall have any doubt as to the outcome of any resolution put to the vote, he shall cause a poll to be taken of all votes cast upon such resolution, but if the chairman shall fail to take a poll then any Shareholder present in person or by proxy who disputes the announcement by the chairman of the result of any vote may immediately following such announcement demand that a poll be taken and the chairman shall thereupon cause a poll to be taken. On a poll every Shareholder who is present in person or represented by proxy shall have one vote per Share held by him. If a poll is taken at any meeting, the result thereof shall be duly recorded in the minutes of that meeting by the chairman.
50. Any person other than an individual shall be regarded as one Shareholder and subject to the provisions of the following Article the right of any individual to speak for or represent such Shareholder shall be determined by the law of the jurisdiction where, and by the documents by which, the person is constituted or derives its existence. In case of doubt, the Directors may in good faith seek legal advice from any qualified person and unless and until a court of competent jurisdiction shall otherwise rule, the Directors may rely and act upon such advice without incurring any liability to any Shareholder.
51. Any person other than an individual which is a Shareholder may by resolution of its Directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any class of Shareholders and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the person which he represents as that person could exercise if it were an individual Shareholder.

52. The chairman of any meeting at which a vote is cast by proxy or on behalf of any person other than an individual may call for a notarially certified copy of such proxy or authority which shall be produced within 7 days of being so requested or the votes cast by such proxy or on behalf of such person shall be disregarded.
53. Directors may attend and speak at any meeting of Shareholders and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class or series of Shares.
54. An action that may be taken by the Shareholders at a meeting may also be taken by a Resolution of Shareholders consented to in writing or by telex, telegram, cable, facsimile or other written electronic communication, without the need for any notice, but if any Resolution of Shareholders is adopted otherwise than by the unanimous written consent of all Shareholders, a copy of such resolution shall forthwith be sent to all Shareholders not consenting to such resolution. The consent may be in the form of counterparts in like form each counterpart being signed by one or more Shareholders.
55. If the Company shall have only one Shareholder the provisions herein contained for meetings of the Shareholders shall not apply and in lieu of minutes of a meeting shall record in writing and sign a note or memorandum of all matters requiring a Resolution of Shareholders. Such a note or memorandum shall constitute sufficient evidence of such resolution for all purposes.
56. Except during the period from the date of incorporation until the date on which the first Directors are appointed by the first registered agent of the Company pursuant to Regulation 62, the minimum number of Directors shall be one.
57. The following are disqualified from appointment as a Director:

 - (c) a retiring Director holds office until the conclusion of the meeting at which that Director retires, but is eligible for re-election.

59. The office of a Director shall immediately be vacated if the Director:

60. A Director may be removed from office, with or without cause, by a Resolution of Shareholders. A resolution passed under this Regulation may only be passed at a meeting called for the purpose of removing the Director or for purposes including the removal of the Director.
61. A Director may resign his office by giving written notice of his resignation to the Company and the resignation shall have effect from the date the notice is received by the Company or from such later date as may be specified in the notice.
62. A vacancy in the Board of Directors may be filled by a Resolution of Shareholders or by a resolution of a majority of the remaining Directors. A person appointed as a Director by a resolution of the remaining directors holds office until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting, and is eligible for re-election at the next annual general meeting.

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

67. The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by, or be under the direction or supervision of, the Directors who may pay all expenses incurred preliminary to and in connection with the formation and registration of the Company and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Act or by the Memorandum or these Articles required to be exercised by the Shareholders, subject to any delegation of such powers as may be authorised by these Articles and to such requirements as may be prescribed by a Resolution of Shareholders, but no requirement made by a Resolution of Shareholders shall prevail if it be inconsistent with these Articles nor shall such requirement invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if such requirement had not been made.

68. Notwithstanding section 175 of the Act, the Directors have the power to sell, transfer, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of the assets of the Company, without restriction and without complying with the provisions of section 175.

- 78. The Directors or any committee thereof may meet at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the British Virgin Islands as the Directors may determine to be necessary or desirable and for the avoidance of doubt any one Director may call a meeting of Directors, however, the failure to satisfy this Regulation does not invalidate the meeting.

Such officers may consist of a chairman of the Board of Directors, a vice chairman of the Board of Directors, President and one or more Vice Presidents, Secretaries and Treasurers and such other officers as may from time to time be deemed desirable. Any number of offices may be held by the same person.
- 91. The officers shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed at the time of their appointment subject to any modification in such duties as may be prescribed thereafter by Resolution of Directors or Resolution of Shareholders, but in the absence of any specific allocation of duties it shall be the responsibility of the chairman of the Board of Directors to preside at meetings of Directors and Shareholders, the vice chairman to act in the absence of the chairman, the President to manage the day to day affairs of the Company, the Vice Presidents to act in order of seniority in the absence of the President but otherwise to perform such duties as may be delegated to them by the President, the Secretaries to maintain the Register of Shareholders, minute books and records (other than financial records) of the Company and to ensure compliance with all procedural requirements imposed on the Company by applicable law, and the Treasurer to be responsible for the financial affairs of the Company.

- 94. A Director shall forthwith after becoming aware of the fact that he is interested in a transaction entered into or to be entered into by the Company, disclose the interest to the board of the Company by bringing it to the attention of every Director of the board. Where a Director's interest in a transaction is not disclosed in accordance with this Regulation the transaction is voidable by the Company.
- 95. Notwithstanding the previous Regulation, a transaction entered into by the Company is not voidable by the Company if:
 - (a) the material facts of the interest of the Director in the transaction are known by the Shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting of Shareholders and the transaction is approved or ratified by a Resolution of Shareholders; or

- (b) the Company received fair value for the transaction, and such determination of fair value is made on the basis of the information known to the Company and the interested Director at the time that the transaction was entered into.
96. A Director who has, directly or indirectly, a material personal interest in any matter that relates to the affairs of the Company that is being considered at a meeting of the Director will only be prohibited or excluded from:
- (a) voting on the matter; or
 - (b) being counted in a quorum for the purposes of the meeting; or

100. The decision of the Directors as to whether the Indemnifiable Person acted honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company and as to whether such person had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful, is in the absence of fraud, sufficient for the purposes of these Articles, unless a question of law is involved.
101. The termination of any proceedings by any judgement, order, settlement, conviction or the entering of a nolle prosequi does not, by itself, create a presumption that the Indemnifiable Person did not act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company or that such person had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

102. If a person to be indemnified has been successful in defence of any proceedings described above the person is entitled to be indemnified against all expenses, including legal fees, and against all judgements, fines and amounts paid in settlement and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the proceedings.
