(v) if required by the Listing Rules, include a voting exclusion statement.

15.6. Omission to give notice

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to any Member or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any Member does not invalidate any of the proceedings at that meeting.

16. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETING

16.1. Member deemed to be present

A Member may attend a general meeting at which it is entitled to be present, and is deemed to be present, in any of the following ways:

(a) in person;

(b) by attorney;

(c) by proxy;

(d) in the case of a Member that is a body corporate, by a representative appointed by that Member in accordance with Regulation 15.

16.2. Attorney of Member

Any Member may appoint an attorney to act on its behalf at all meetings of the Company or all meetings of the Company during a specified period. Before the first meeting at which the attorney acts on the Member's behalf, a power of attorney must be deposited at the Office or at any place specified in the notice convening that meeting.

16.3. Representative of body corporate

Any Member that is a body corporate may, by resolution of its directors authorise any person to act as its representative at a particular meeting or at all meetings. That representative is then entitled to exercise the same powers as the body corporate appointing the representative could have exercised as a Member, if he was a natural person. A certificate under the seal of the body corporate shall be prima facie evidence of the appointment or of the revocation of the appointment, as the case may be, of a representative pursuant this Regulation.

16.4. Quorum for general meeting

No business may be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present at the commencement of the business. A quorum is three Members present in person or by attorney or proxy.

16.5.No quorum

(b) If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for the adjourned meeting, then those Members who are present in person are deemed to be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

16.6.Chairman of general meeting

The chairman of the Directors or, in the chairman's absence, the deputy chairman (if any), will be entitled to take the chair at every general meeting. If there is no chairman or if at any meeting the chairman is not present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or if the chairman is unwilling to act, the Directors present may choose a chairman. If the Directors do not choose a chairman, the Members present must choose one of the Directors to be chairman, and if no Director is present or willing to take the chair, the Members must choose one of the Members to be chairman.

16.7.Powers of chairman

The chairman is responsible for the general conduct of the general meeting. At any general meeting, a declaration by the chairman that a proposed resolution or special resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of proceedings of the Company is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution or special resolution.

16.8.Adjournment of general meeting

The chairman of a general meeting may adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business will be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

16.9.Notice of adjourned meeting

If any general meeting is adjourned for more than one month, a notice of the adjournment must be given to Members in the same manner as notice was or ought to have been given of the original meeting.

17.VOTING

17.1.Resolution determined by majority

At a general meeting, all resolutions submitted to the meeting will be decided by a simple majority of votes, except where:

(a) the proposed resolution is proposed as a special resolution; or

(b) a greater majority is required by this Constitution or the Listing Rules.

17.2.Casting vote of chairman

In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman will have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which the Chairman may be entitled as a Member, unless: (i) the chairman is not entitled for some other reason to cast a vote on the proposed resolution, or (ii) if the chairman casts a vote and the Listing Rules or this Constitution require that no account be taken of the vote, in which case the proposed resolution is not passed.

17.3.Method of voting

Every proposed resolution submitted to the meeting, in the first instance, will be determined by a show of hands unless a poll is demanded in accordance with Regulation 17 either before or on the declaration of the result of the vote on a show of hands.

17.4.Demand for poll

A poll may be demanded on any proposed resolution by:

- (a) the chairman;
- (b) at least five Members present in person or by attorney or proxy or by representative; or
- (c) any one or more Members holding Shares conferring not less than 5% of the total voting rights of all Members having the right to vote on the proposed resolution.

17.5.Conduct of poll

The chairman will decide in each case the manner in which a poll is taken, but in all cases it must ascertain the number of votes attaching to Shares held or represented by persons voting in favour of a proposed resolution or special resolution and the number of votes attaching to Shares held or represented by persons voting against the proposed resolution or special resolution. Any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote will be determined by the chairman and that determination made in good faith will be final and conclusive.

17.6.Votes

Subject to this Constitution, the Listing Rules and the rights or restrictions on voting which may attach to or be imposed on any class of Shares:

- (a) on a show of hands every Member (including each holder of preference Shares who has a right to vote) present in person or by proxy or attorney or representative will have one vote; and
- (b) on a poll every Member (including each holder of preference Shares who has a right to vote) present in person or by proxy, attorney or representative will have one vote for each Share held by that Member

17.7.Voting by joint holders

Where there are joint holders of any Share, any joint holder may vote at any meeting either personally or by proxy or attorney or representative in respect of the Shares as if they were solely entitled to those Shares, but if more than one joint holder is present at any meeting (whether personally, by proxy or by attorney or by representative) and tenders a vote, only the vote of the joint holder whose name appears first on the register will be counted. Several legal personal representatives of a deceased Member will for the purpose of this Regulation be deemed to be joint holders of the Shares registered in the name of that Member.

17.8.Voting by transmittee

A person entitled to transmission of a Share under Regulation 10 who, at least forty-eight hours before the time notified for a general meeting (or an adjourned meeting), satisfies the Board of his right to that Share, may vote at that general meeting in respect of that Share as if the person were registered as the holder of the Share.

17.9.Voting by Member of unsound mind

If a Member is of unsound mind or is a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under a law relating to mental health, that Member's committee or trustee or other person who properly has the management of the Member's estate may, if that person has at least forty-eight hours before the time notified for a general meeting (or an adjourned meeting) satisfied the Board of its relationship to the Member or the Member's estate, exercise the rights of the Member in respect of the general meeting as if the committee, trustee or other person were the Member.

17.10. Voting exclusions

If:

(a) in accordance with the requirements of the Listing Rules; or

(b) to ensure that a proposed resolution on which the Listing Rules require that particular persons do not cast a vote so that the proposed resolution has a specified effect, and the notice of general meeting includes a voting exclusion statement specifying that, in relation to particular business to be considered at that general meeting, and that votes cast by particular persons (whether specified by name or description of particular classes of persons) are to be disregarded by the Company, the Company must take no account, in determining the votes cast on a proposed resolution relating to that business (whether a special resolution or an ordinary resolution) or for any other purpose, of any vote cast or purported to be cast by or on behalf of any of those persons (whether on a show of hands or on a poll) in relation to that proposed resolution except to the extent permitted by the Listing Rules.

17.11. Ruling on entitlements and votes

An objection may be raised with the chairman of a general meeting as to the qualification of a purported voter or the admission or rejection of a vote by any person present and entitled (or claiming to be entitled) to vote but that objection may be made only at the general meeting or adjourned meeting at which the purported voter wishes to vote or the vote objected to is given or tendered and, in relation to that objection:

(a) the decision of the chairman is final and conclusive; and

(b) a vote not disallowed as a result is valid and effective for all purposes.

18. PROXIES

18.1. Instrument appointing proxy

The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing and signed by the appointor or the appointor's attorney duly authorised in writing, or, if the appointor is a body corporate, by its corporate representative or at least two of its officers.

18.2. Deposit of proxy with company

The instrument appointing a proxy and the original power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed or a certified copy of the power of attorney must be received by the Company at least forty-eight hours before the meeting by delivery to the Company's office, by facsimile received at the Company's office or at any other place, fax number or electronic address specified for the purpose in the notice of meeting.

18.3. Presence of Member

If a Member is present either in person or by its corporate representative, and a person appointed by that Member as proxy is also present at that meeting, that person may not exercise the rights conferred by the instrument of proxy while the Member is present.

18.4. Validity of vote given in accordance with proxy

Unless the Company has received written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of the meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy will be valid even if, before the proxy or attorney voted:

(a) the Member dies;

(b) the Member is mentally incapacitated;

(c) the Member revokes the proxy's appointment;

(d) the Member revokes the authority under which the proxy was appointed by a third party; or

(e) the Member transfers the Share for which the proxy was given.

18.5. Form of proxy

(a) Every instrument of proxy must specify the Member's name and address, the Company's name, the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy and the meetings at which the proxy may be used.

(b) The instrument of proxy may be worded so that a proxy is directed to vote either for or against each of the resolutions to be proposed. Any instrument of proxy deposited in accordance with this Constitution in which the name of the appointee is not filled will be deemed to be given in favour of the chairman of the meeting to which it relates. The instrument of proxy may specify the proportion or number of votes that the proxy may exercise.

A Director appointed under this Regulation while the Company is Listed must retire from office, and will be eligible for re-election, at the next annual general meeting following his appointment, but that Director will not be taken into account in determining the number of Directors who are to retire by rotation.

19.6. Eligibility for election as a Director

Except in the case of a Director retiring from the Board under this Constitution or a person recommended for appointment by the Board, a person is only eligible to be appointed as a Director by Resolution of Shareholders, where the Company receives at its Office at least ten business days before a general meeting:

- (e) that alternate Director automatically vacates office if his appointor is removed or otherwise ceases to hold office for any reason;
- (f) that alternate Director, whilst acting as a Director, is responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults and is not deemed to be the agent of his appointor;
- (g) that alternate Director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company but is entitled to reimbursement for reasonable travelling and other expenses incurred by him in attending meetings of the Board or otherwise on the Company's business;
- (h) that alternate Director is not to be taken into account in determining the number of Directors for the purposes of this Constitution; and

This Regulation does not apply to the managing director, but if there is more than one managing director, only one is entitled not to be subject to this Regulation.

20.2. Retirement by rotation

Unless otherwise determined by a Resolution of Shareholders, while the Company is Listed, one-third of the Directors for the time being, or if their number is not a multiple of three, then the whole number nearest one-third, must retire from office at each annual general meeting. The Directors to retire will be those who have been longest in office since their last election, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day, those to retire will, unless they otherwise agree among themselves, be determined by drawing lots. A retiring Director may act as a Director throughout the meeting at which he retires and at any adjournment. 23.2. Powers to borrow or raise money

Without limiting the generality of Regulation 23, the Directors may from time to time at their discretion borrow or raise any sum or sums of money or obtain other financial accommodation for the purposes of the Company and may grant security for the repayment of that sum or sums or the payment, performance or fulfilment of any debts, liabilities, contracts or obligations incurred or undertaken by the Company in any manner and upon any terms and conditions as they think fit and in particular by the issue or re-issue of bonds, perpetual or redeemable debentures or any mortgage, charge or other security on the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property of the Company (both present and future).

23.3. Directors may vote in respect of shares in other corporations

Subject to the Listing Rules, the Directors may exercise the voting power conferred by shares in, or securities of, any corporation held by the Company in any manner they think fit, including in circumstances where a Director may be interested in the exercise, such as an exercise in favour of any
