Review of operations

There were no material changes to the Company's operations during the year. The Company depends on Queensland Sugar Limited for most of its revenue. During the year ended 30 June 2016 99% (2015 – 99%) of the Company's revenue was sourced from QSL under the Company's Sublease agreement with that company.

Matters subsequent to the end of the financial year

No matter or circumstance has arisen since 30 June 2016 that has significantly affected, or may significantly affect:

- (a) the Company's operations in future financial years, or
- (b) the results of those operations in future financial years, or
- (c) the Company's state of affairs in future financial years.

Likely developments and expected results of operations

The Company's operating environment will change fundamentally after June 2017 due to the decision of Wilmar Sugar Australia Limited, MSF Sugar Limited and Tully Sugar Limited to market their export sugar independently of QSL from July 2017, and the passing of the Sugar Industry (Real Choice in Marketing) Amendment Bill in December 2015 which amended the Sugar Industry Act 1999. As a result, the Company is currently in confidential discussions with QSL about business models that can be implemented to address the impacts of these sugar industry changes and to ensure the Company is well prepared for the new operating environment from July 2017.

There were no other likely developments in the operations of the Company that were not finalised at the date of this report.

Remuneration report

The information provided in this remuneration report has been audited as required by section 308 (3C) of the Corporations Act 2001.

Principles used to determine the nature and amount of remuneration

The objective of the Company's executive reward framework is to ensure reward for performance is competitive and appropriate for the results delivered. The framework aligns executive reward with achievement of strategic objectives and the creation of value for shareholders, and conforms with market best practice for delivery of reward. The Board ensures that executive reward satisfies the following key criteria for good reward governance practices:

- competitiveness and reasonableness
- acceptability to shareholders
- transparency
- · capital management.

The Company has structured an executive remuneration framework that is market competitive and complementary to the reward strategy of the organisation.

Non-executive directors

Fees and payments to non-executive directors reflect the demands which are made on, and the responsibilities of, the directors. Non-executive directors' fees and payments are reviewed periodically by the Board. Directors are elected for a period of 3 years, and are subject to re-election for a maximum of 3 consecutive terms. No notice is required for termination.

Directors' report

30 June 2016

Directors' fees

The directors' remuneration is reviewed with effect from 1 July each year.

Non-executive directors' fees are determined within an aggregate directors' fee pool limit, which is periodically subject to approval by shareholders. The maximum aggregate annual amount currently stands at $250,000.

The following fees (excluding statutory superannuation) have applied:

	From 1 July 2015 to	From 1 July 2014 to
	30 June 2016	30 June 2015
Chairman	$82,900	$81,700
Other non-executive directors	$30,150	$29,700

Retirement Allowances for Directors

Non-executive directors are not entitled to retirement allowances or termination payments.

Executive pay

The general manager's employment contract does not have a minimum term and he is required to give 3 months notice of termination.

The general manager's pay and reward framework has three components:

- base pay and benefits
- short-term performance incentives
- other remuneration such as superannuation.

The combination of these comprises the executive's total remuneration.

Base pay

The general manager is offered a competitive base pay that comprises the fixed component of pay and rewards. Base pay is reviewed annually to ensure the remuneration is competitive with the market.

There are no guaranteed base pay increases fixed in the general manager's contract.

Benefits

No benefits were paid during the year.

Short-term incentives

The general manager has a target short-term incentive (STI) opportunity. Each year the board considers appropriate targets and key performance indicators (KPI's) to link the STI plan and the level of payouts if targets are met. Short-term bonus payments may be adjusted up or down in line with under or over achievements against the target performance levels, at the discretion of the board.

The following table illustrates factors affecting shareholder value over the past five years:

Note 1 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial report are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

(a) Basis of preparation

This general purpose financial report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board, Urgent Issues Group interpretations and the Corporations Act 2001. Sugar Terminals Ltd is a for-profit entity for the purpose of preparing the financial statements.

Compliance with IFRS

The financial report of Sugar Terminals Ltd also complies with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as used by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB)

None of the new standards and amendments to standards that are mandatory for the first time for the financial year beginning 1 July 2016 affected any of the amounts recognised in the current period or any prior period and are not likely to affect future periods.

Historical cost convention

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Critical accounting estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with AIFRS requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the financial statements are disclosed in Note 3.

(b) Segment reporting

An operating segment is a component of an entity that engages in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses and whose operating results are regularly reviewed by the entity's chief operating decision maker to make decisions about resources to be allocated to the segment and assess its performance.

(c) Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Amounts disclosed as revenue are net of duties and taxes paid. Revenue is recognised for the major business activities as follows:

- (1) Rental revenue:
 - Rental revenue from operating leases is recognised in income on a straight-line basis over the lease term.
- (ii) Interest revenue:

Interest revenue is recognised using the effective interest rate method.

(d) Income tax

The income tax expense for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the notional income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements.

Deferred income tax is provided for in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. However, the deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the Company has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax balances attributable to amounts recognised directly in equity are also recognised directly in equity.

(e) Leases

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Lease income from operating leases is recognised in income on a straight-line basis over the lease term (Note 10).

(f) Foreign currency translation

Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of the Company are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates ('the functional currency'). The financial statements are presented in Australian dollars, which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

(g) Cash and cash equivalents

For cash flow statement presentation purposes, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities on the balance sheet.

(h) Trade receivables

Trade receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate, less provision for doubtful debts. Trade receivables are due for settlement no more than 30 days from the date of recognition.

Collectibility of trade receivables is reviewed on an ongoing basis. Debts which are known to be uncollectible are written off. A provision for impairment of trade receivables is established when there is objective evidence that the Company will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of the receivables. Significant financial difficulties of the debtor, probability that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or financial reorganisation, and default or delinquency in payments (more than 30 days overdue) are considered indicators that the trade receivable is impaired. The amount of the provision is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate. Cash flows relating to short-term receivables are not discounted if the effect of discounting is immaterial. The amount of the provision is recognised in the income statement in other expenses.

(i) Non-current assets (or disposal groups) held for sale and discontinued operations

Non-current assets (or disposal groups) are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use. They are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell, except for assets such as deferred tax assets, assets arising from employee benefits, financial assets, and investment property that are carried at fair value and contractual rights under insurance contracts, which are specifically exempt from this requirement.

(j) Investment property

Investment property is shown at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

30 June 2016

Leasehold land is not depreciated. Options to renew the leases are in the control of the Company.

Depreciation on other assets is calculated using the straight line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

- Buildings

40 - 80 years

- Plant and equipment

7-50 years

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each balance sheet date.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in the statement of comprehensive income.

(k) Impairment of assets

Assets that are subject to depreciation are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash generating units).

The recoverable amounts calculations require the use of assumptions. Refer to Note 10(c) for more details on the carrying amounts of non-current assets subject to impairment testing. A reasonably possible change in any of the key assumptions would not cause the carrying amount of the Investment Property cash generating unit to exceed its recoverable amount.

(l) Trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Company prior to the end of the financial year which are unpaid. The amounts are unsecured and are usually paid within 30 days of recognition.

(m) Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in the income statement over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest rate method.

Borrowings are removed from the balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in other income or other expenses.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Company has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the balance sheet date.

(n) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs incurred for the construction of any qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Other borrowing costs are expensed.

(o) Employee benefits

Wages and salaries, annual leave and sick leave

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits, annual leave and accumulating sick leave expected to be settled within 12 months of the reporting date are recognised in other payables in respect of employees' services up to the reporting date and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. Liabilities for non-accumulating sick leave are recognised when the leave is taken and measured at the rates paid or payable.

Retirement benefit obligations

Contributions are made by the Company to an employee's superannuation fund and are charged as expenses when incurred.

30 June 2016

(p) Contributed equity

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

(a) Dividends

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared being appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the Company on or before the end of the year, but not distributed at balance date.

(r) Earnings per share

(i) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the profit attributable to equity holders of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares, by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the year.

(ii) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares and the weighted average number of shares assumed to have been issued for no consideration in relation to dilutive potential ordinary shares.

(s) Rounding of amounts

The Company is of a kind referred to in Class Order 98/0100, issued by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission, relating to the "rounding off" of amounts in the financial report. Amounts in the financial report have been rounded off in accordance with that Class Order to the nearest thousand dollars, or in certain cases, the nearest dollar.

(t) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of associated GST, unless the GST incurred is not recoverable from the taxation authority. In this case it is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense.

Receivables and payables are stated inclusive of the amount of GST receivable or payable. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included with other receivables or payables in the balance sheet. Cash flows are presented on a gross basis. The GST components of cash flows arising from investing or financing activities which are recoverable from, or payable to the taxation authority, are presented as operating cash flows.

(u) New accounting standards and interpretations

Certain new accounting standards, amendments and interpretations have been published that are mandatory for the Company for the reporting periods beginning on or after 1 July 2016 but which the Company has not yet adopted. Based on a review, the Company has concluded that the majority of these standards yet to be adopted are not expected to have a significant impact on the Company's financial statements. The Company's assessment of the impact of those new standards, amendments and interpretations which may have an impact is set out below:

AASB 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers (effective from 1 January 2017).

The AASB has issued a new standard for the recognition of revenue. This will replace AASB 118 which covers contracts for goods and services and AASB 111 which covers construction contracts. The Company has not yet considered the impact of the new rules on its revenue recognition policies. It will undertake a detailed assessment in the near future. The Company will assess whether to adopt AASB 15 before its operative date; if not it would be first applied in the annual reporting period ending 30 June 2018.

AASB 16 Leases (effective from 1 January 2019).

The AASB has issued a new standard for Leases which applies to accounting periods commencing on or after 1 January 2019. The Company has not yet considered the impact of the new rules on its leases. It will undertake a detailed assessment in the near future. The Company will assess whether to adopt AASB 16 before its operative date; if not it would be first applied in the annual reporting period ending 30 June 2019.

Note 2 Capital and financial risk management

The Company's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk. The Company's overall risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on the financial performance of the Company.

(a) Credit risk

The Company had no significant concentrations of credit risk. Cash at bank and term deposits are all held with AAA financial institutions.

(b) Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities, both of which the Company considers at all times.

(i) Financing arrangements

The Company had access to the following undrawn borrowing facility at the reporting date

(c) Market risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

The Company is not exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from currency exposure.

(ii) Price risk

The Company is not exposed to equity securities price risk.

(iii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

The Company's income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates. There is no external debt or interest bearing obligations.

(d) Capital risk management

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard its ability to continue as a going concern so that it can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders.

Note 3 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

(a) Critical accounting estimates and assumptions

The Company makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. At the date of signing this report, there are no estimates or assumptions that have significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

(b) Critical judgements in applying the Company's accounting policies

There have been no significant judgements made in the application of the Company's accounting policies that have a material impact on the amounts recognised in the financial report.

- the term of the Sublease is 5 years
- a commencing annual rental of $44.86 million to be increased annually during the term by 2.5% and by a percentage of the amount that capital expenditure on the terminals exceeds a predetermined threshold as specified in the Sublease
- STL has the right to terminate the Sublease if QSL's volume falls below, or is expected to fall below, a certain percentage of the total volume, and STL has the right to exclude a particular terminal if QSL's volume is less than, or is expected to be less than, the agreed percentage of the volume at that terminal in a season.

The fair value of investment properties at 30 June 2016 was $455 million. As there is no market based evidence of the fair value of the terminals, this amount has been calculated by applying an appropriate discount factor to estimated future cash flows. This is a level 3 fair value measurement in accordance with AASB 13 (97). There has been no independent valuation performed.

Disclosures relating to key management personnel are set out in Note 17.

Note 22 Economic dependency

The Company depends on Queensland Sugar Limited (QSL) for most of its revenue under a Sublease agreement with that company. During the year ended 30 June 2016, 99% (2015 – 99%) of the Company's revenue was sourced from QSL.

The Company is in the secure position of controlling the 6 Queensland bulk sugar terminals with very long leases from the respective port authorities. While these terminals are subleased to QSL for 5 years from 1 January 2014, the Sublease is linked to QSL controlling certain percentages of the sugar that is stored and handled at each terminal. Should QSL's percentages drop below the nominated levels, STL may terminate the Sublease or exclude the affected terminal(s) and enter into alternative arrangements.

The Company's operating environment will change fundamentally after June 2017 due to:

- the decision of Wilmar Sugar Australia Limited, MSF Sugar Limited and Tully Sugar Limited to market their export sugar independently of QSL from July 2017, and
- the passing of the Sugar Industry (Real Choice in Marketing) Amendment Bill in December 2015 which amended the Sugar Industry Act 1999.

As a result, STL will need to cater for a more dynamic, competitive and multi-user environment.

The Company has responded by undertaking an extensive strategic review of its options and sought the views of shareholders and other key industry stakeholders during the year. It is currently in confidential discussions with QSL about business models that can be implemented to address the impacts of the sugar industry changes and to ensure the Company is well prepared for the new operating environment from July 2017.
