6. To consider and if thought fit to pass the following resolution as an ordinary resolution:

That for the purposes of sub-rule (1) of rule 6.25 of the NSX Listing Rules, and for all other purposes, the company be authorised to issue up to 1,314,665 additional new shares during the 12 month period following the conclusion of the meeting.
7. To consider and if thought fit to pass the following resolution as a special resolution:

That the company's constitution be amended by repealing rule 31.10 and replacing it with the following new rule:

31.10 Unclaimed dividends

- (a) Unclaimed dividends may be used by the directors as they think fit for the benefit of the company until they are claimed or dealt with under sub-rule (b) or in accordance with any law relating to unclaimed moneys.
- (b) The directors may revoke the payment of an unclaimed dividend and retain the dividend for the benefit of the company if the dividend remains unclaimed for three years from the date it was payable.
- (c) The company must give written notice to the affected member at least six months prior to the date on which the directors intend to revoke the payment of an unclaimed dividend.

NOTES

- 2. Under section 300A of the Corporations Act the directors' report must include a separately identified remuneration report. The report appears on page 6 of the annual report. The company is required to submit the report for adoption at the annual general meeting.
- 3. Frank Malcolm retires by rotation and, being eligible, offers himself for re-election.
- 4. Steven Pritchard retires by rotation and, being eligible, offers himself for re-election.
- 5. Gordon Elkington retires by rotation and, being eligible, offers himself for re-election.
- 6. The power of the company to make placements of new shares is limited in general terms by sub-rule (1) of rule 6.25 of the NSX Listing Rules, which allows the company to make placements of up to 15 percent of the minimum number of shares on issue at any time during the 12 month period preceding any placement. The company must obtain the consent of shareholders in general meeting if it wishes to be able to issue more shares than this.

The number of shares on issue as at 30 October 2023 was 5,258,663, and 15 percent of this is 788,799. The company is seeking shareholder approval to be able to issue a further 25 percent of the shares on issue as at 30 October 2023 during the 12 month period following the conclusion of the meeting. This is 1,314,665 additional new shares.

The directors of the company are in agreement that the company needs to expand, so that its fixed costs are spread over a larger capital base. One way in which the company can expand its capital is by issuing some of its own shares in consideration or part consideration for shares in one or more other companies as it did, for example, when it acquired a controlling interest in Penrose Club Holdings Limited in the year ended 30 June 2018. If shareholders approve the additional placement capacity, it will give the company greater flexibility in raising capital if the board can identify one or more suitable new investment opportunities during the 12 months following the conclusion of the meeting.

It is not intended that there should be any changes to the nature or the general scale of the company's activities.

7. The company's constitution presently includes the following provision relating to unclaimed dividends:

31.10 Unclaimed dividends.

Except as otherwise provided by the Law, all dividends unclaimed for 1 year after having been declared may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the Benefit of the Company until claimed.

The company is presently holding $21,462 in unclaimed dividends on behalf of a number of shareholders and former shareholders, and this creates additional record-keeping and accounting work for the company. The directors have lost touch with most of the persons concerned, and would like to tidy all this up by paying outstanding dividends to persons who can be found, and revoking any other unclaimed dividends for the benefit of the company.

Rule 31 as it presently stands does not allow the directors to do this. The directors believe however that the procedure set out in the new rule 3.10 represents a fair way of dealing with dividends which remain unclaimed after a long period.

Secretary
