2.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	The Company complies in full with this Recommendation. As of the date of this Corporate Governance Statement, the board comprised of the following persons: CHUNG Eric Chi Kong Executive director and Chief Executive Officer Date first appointed: 27 June 2016 Date last elected: Not applicable[#] [#] Subject to re-election at the next AGM pursuant to Regulation 19.3 of the Constitution. YAP Poh Yee Executive director Date first appointed: 27 June 2016 Date last elected: Not applicable[#] [#]Subject to re-election at the next AGM pursuant to Regulation 19.3 of the Constitution. KONG Teck Chin Non-independent non-Executive director Date first appointed: 27 June 2016 Date last elected: Not applicable[#] [#]Subject to re-election at the next AGM pursuant to Regulation 19.3 of the Constitution YU Weimin Independent and non-Executive director Date first appointed: 17 January 2025 Date last elected: Not applicable[#] [#] Subject to re-election at the next AGM pursuant to Regulation 19.3 of the Constitution.

Principle No.	Recommendation	Compliance or Reason for Non-compliance
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	The Company does not comply in full with this Recommendation. The board currently comprise of two executive directors and two non-independent non-executive directors. The board considers the minimum number of executive directors required to function effectively is two, in that one to oversee the research, production and marketing functions of the Group's business and another to oversee the finance, administration, legal and compliance functions. To comply with this Recommendation will require the Company to appoint two additional independent directors which will increase the size of the board to six members. The board consider that the current size of the Company and the scale of the Group's operations do not justify having such a large board when the functions of the board can be performed adequately by a four-member board. As the Company grows its scope and scale of operations, the board will assess whether there is a need to expand the board by inviting persons with the right skills sets to join the board as independent directors.
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	The Company complies in full with this Recommendation. Currently, there is no chairman on the board.
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	The Company complies in full with this Recommendation. The board has put in place a program where all new directors will be assessed by the Company's nominated adviser as to the extent of his or her awareness of his or her responsibilities as a director of a company which is listed on NSX, and where such awareness is insufficient, to undergo such training or induction as may be recommended by the nominated adviser. The present members of the board are aware of their personal responsibilities to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively and, if so requested by a director, the Company will bear reasonable costs and expenses of any continuing education program or course which a director may request to attend.

		Finally, the board intends to appoint only as director a person who has the necessary skills and knowledge to perform his or her intended role and who is aware of his or her personal responsibility for his or her own continuous education.
3.1	A listed entity should: (a) have a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) disclose that code or a summary of it.	The Company does not comply in full with this Recommendation. The Company has not formally adopted a Code of Conduct. However, every director, senior executive and employees is aware of his or her responsibility to at all times act ethically and strictly comply with the spirit and letter of all laws and regulations of countries in which the Group carry on business
4.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have an audit committee which: (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or	The Company does not comply in full with this Recommendation. The board considers that the Company is not of a size, nor is its financial affairs of such complexity, to justify the formation of an audit committee. The board as a whole, in consultation with the incumbent external auditor, undertakes the selection and proper application of accounting policies, the integrity of financial reporting, the identification and management of risk and review of the operation of the internal control systems. The board maintains regular communication with the external auditor and monitors their performance on a yearly basis. Currently, the board considers the Company's financial affairs not to be of such complexity as to justify the rotation of the audit partner.

	(b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.
4.2	The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	The Company complies in full with this Recommendation. The board will receive an annual assurance in the form of a declaration from the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer (or equivalent) as required by the Corporations Act 2001.
