Supporting Motor Neurone Disease

Ivanhoe Bowling Club recently held their third annual charity event to raise funds for research into Motor Neurone Disease. As a major sponsor of the club, the Community Bank® branches entered two teams, who all had a great night. Tournament organiser, John Higgins, said more than $2,500 was raised on the night for MND research - a great effort by Ivanhoe Bowling Club and its supporters.

Off to the Cottage by the Sea

Late last year, staff from East Ivanhoe and Heidelberg Community Bank® branches embarked on a project to fund a summer holiday for local kids in need. Through a program run by Banyule City Council, the team provided $4,000 to fund the five-day camp for 30 children at the Cottage by the Sea in Queenscliff. Each child was presented with bags including caps, water bottles and other goodies to take away with them on the holiday break.

The program provides children who don't have the opportunity of a holiday or a break from their normal lifestyle and are referred by teachers, social workers, maternal and child health nurses, churches and other agencies. The team hope to offer this to disadvantaged children each year as an ongoing project together with Banyule City Council.

Teaming up with La Trobe University

La Trobe University has made a multi-year commitment to sponsor Youth Foundations 3081, reinforcing their commitment of their local community in West Heidelberg.

As many of our customers may be aware, East Ivanhoe and Heidelberg Community Bank® branches have sponsored the Youth Foundations West Heidelberg program for the past four years. In partnership with the State Government, Banyule City Council and Banyule Community Health, the youth-led philanthropy program commenced in 2008 and works with youth in West Heidelberg to equip them with valuable life skills to improve and enhance their local area.

Last year, the three-year State Government funding for the project ended, and the future of this life-changing program was in doubt. La Trobe University recognised that the program supported their charter to engage with their local community and provide professional, cultural, social and economic links and provide input into the development of these communities.

The new Youth Foundations 3081 program will be launched at Banyule Community Health on 22 March.

Celebrating Women in Business

Last year we proudly sponsored the third annual Women in Business Lunch, with guest speaker Janine Allis, Founder and Managing Director of Boost Juice.

About 300 local business women made their way to The Centre Ivanhoe to hear the story of the entrepreneurial mother of four and former Telstra Business Woman of the Year. Janine took us on a journey of the highs and lows she faced on her way to creating the Boost Juice empire, which now employs more than 5,000 people across the globe. It was a refreshing look at a very grounded and down to earth woman who had a simple vision and made it happen.

The event was also an opportunity to showcase the wares of Ivanhoe traders, with a fashion parade of what's in store this summer.

So... what is community banking?

Many people ask us what community banking is, and why we have so much capacity to return money to the local community. Our Community Bank® branches exist to provide a highly competitive and local banking service which will return the maximum possible benefits back to the community.

This is achieved through a partnership with Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Ltd and our local community Company (Heidelberg District Community Enterprise Ltd) which is owned by local people who receive a dividend for their investment in establishing the two Community Bank® branches. After operating expenses are met, the branches can return 80% of their profits to the local community through community grants and sponsorships.

To date, the two Community Bank® branches in East Ivanhoe and Heidelberg have returned more than $1.8 million in grants and sponsorships.

With your continued support our ambition is to be returning $1 million each year to our community by 2015. How can you help? Simply by doing your banking with East Ivanhoe or Heidelberg Community Bank® branches. So call into one of the branches – you'll enjoy our friendly service, convenient opening hours and range of products – as well as what together we can do for your community.

Inaugural Ivanhoe Community Fun Run

Ivanhoe Cricket Club hosted the inaugural Ivanhoe Community Fun Run on Sunday 26 February. More than 150 participants braved the 36°C degree heat to run or walk the 2.5 or 5km courses, kicking off from Ivanhoe Park. There was great collaboration from other clubs within the precinct, with participants from Ivanhoe Park Croquet Club, football clubs and cricket club, who went on to play a Twenty20 match in the afternoon. More than $3,500 was raised for Open House, through a range of silent auction items, fun run registration income and sponsorship. East Ivanhoe and Heidelberg Community Bank® branches were thrilled to be the major sponsor of the event, alongside Miles Real Estate, Autoclinic and Step into Life, and we would like to thank George Grossek from the ICC for putting this event together.
