VOTING RIGHTS

Attending the Meeting

All shareholders may attend the Annual General Meeting.

In the case of joint shareholders, all holders may attend the meeting. If only one holder attends the meeting, that shareholder may vote at the meeting in respect of the relevant shares (including by proxy) as if that holder were solely entitled to them. If more than one joint holder is present (including by proxy), the joint holder whose name appears first in the register in respect of the relevant shares is entitled to vote in respect of them.

A corporate shareholder may appoint one or more persons to act as its representative under section 250D of the Corporations Act 2001 (C'wlth) (the Corporations Act), but only one representative may exercise the corporate shareholder's powers at any one time. The Company requires written evidence of a representative's appointment to be lodged with or presented to the Company before the meeting.

Not attending the Meeting

Shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting, but not attending, are encouraged to appoint a proxy to vote on their behalf, using the enclosed Proxy Form. The person appointed as the member's proxy may be an individual or a body corporate. A proxy need not be a member of the Company.

A shareholder who is entitled to cast two or more votes at the meeting may appoint two proxies and specify on the Proxy Form the proportion or number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise.

For an appointment of a proxy for the meeting of the Company's members to be effective, the following documents must be received by the Company at least 48 hours before the meeting being no later than 5.00pm 18 October 2010.

1. The proxy's appointment
2. If the appointment is signed by the appointer's attorney – the authority under which the appointment was signed or a certified copy of the authority.

The Company receives the proxy documents when they are received at any of the following:

1. The Company's registered office at 23 McLaren Street, Bendigo, Victoria, 3550.

2. The fax number (03) 5454 1537

A proxy form accompanies this notice of meeting.
